LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

I believe this yearbook is an amazing culmination of all of the ideas from each and every staff member. It has definitely been a stressful time, but it was worth it to be able to create another incredible volume of the Mirror.

I'm so thankful to have had McKenzie Cooper as my co-editor, and I know I'm leaving the yearbook in capable hands with her next year. I would also like to thank C.J. Adams for providing his design expertise as our new yearbook adviser.

I have so enjoyed my time here at ICC, and the latest edition of the Mirror displays all of my favorite things. From the student clubs to the many student activities to the student profiles, it is all represented perfectly throughout the 168 pages. As you look through this book, I hope you see ICC through my eyes and remember all of the good times you had in the 2018-2019 year!

Andra Myer

AIMING FOR Excellence

The theme for the 2019 Mirror is "Aiming for Excellence." Every year, the Mirror adds pages to the history of the college and highlights the accomplishments students make during their time here. This year, the Mirror staff captures the history of the College and the ICC family who has written it through participation and accomplishments. Throughout the Mirror, we have utilized arrows to symbolize students' aiming for their highest potential. We, as a staff, believe that this yearbook will showcase all of the excellent activities, clubs and people that make up Itawamba Community College, as well as preserve lasting memories.

MOVE-IN DAY

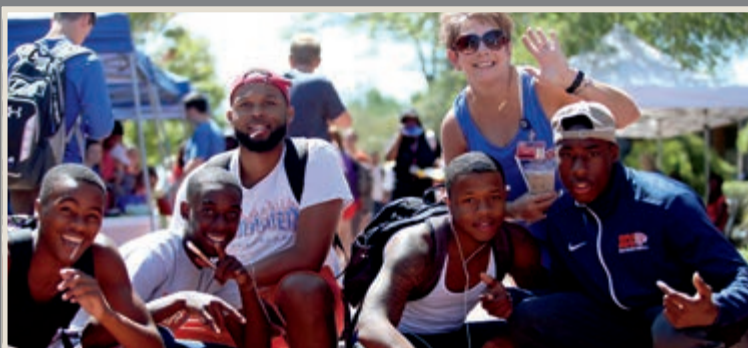

Itawamba Community College's administrators ensured that resident students received a warm welcome when they moved in to the dormitories, Aug. 12.

On the warm summer day, administrators, from left, Dr. Joe Lowder, Tim Senter, Dr. Brad Boggs, Tyler Camp, Dr. Melissa Haab and Dr. Jay Allen carried water, unloaded vehicles and assisted with moving items into the halls.

The assistance made Move-In Day easier for parents and students who waited in line for their opportunity to begin their residence hall experience at ICC.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT FAIR

For the past few years, Itawamba Community College has provided an opportunity for students to learn about clubs and organizations on both the Fulton and Tupelo campuses that might be of interest.

Students attended involvement fairs Sept. 12 on the Fulton Campus and Sept. 13 on the Tupelo Campus to explore membership and participation in various groups relating to major or interest.

Each campus club, organization and group was asked to have a display, information about their group, representatives from their organization to talk with prospective members and goodies for those stopping by the booth.

The fairs were located at the pavilion at the Tupelo Campus and along the pedestrian walkway beside the David C. Cole Student Services Building at the Fulton Campus.

Jake Hartfield, coordinator of Student Activities, coordinated the event, which included 22 organizations/departments in Fulton and 13 in Tupelo.

WELCOME WEEK

The week beginning Aug. 13 was packed with activities to welcome Itawamba Community College students to the 2018 fall semester.

At the Fulton Campus all students were invited to participate in such activities as Coffee at the Pavilion, Snow Cone Cool Down on Monday, the first day of classes; Burgers and Blues (Wesley Foundation) and Back-to-School Water Party (BSU) (Tuesday), residence hall meetings (Wednesday), SGA Lemonade Meet and Greet and Freshman Welcome Party (BSU) (Thursday) and Donuts with Campus Police (Friday).

Tupelo Campus events included Find Your Class with Coffee and Donuts (Monday and Tuesday) and Snow Cone Cool Down (Wednesday).

FRESHMAN RUN

First-year students led Itawamba Community College's football team onto Eaton Field during the Freshman Run on Sept. 6.

Members of the 2018 freshman class participated in what is now an annual tradition, which began in 2017.

ICC's Student Activities office coordinated the event.

COMMUNITY TAILGATE

Members of Itawamba Community College's Upsilon Sigma chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, the Honors Program and Faculty Association, pictured above, walked away with top honors for the Community Tailgate, which was Sept. 27.

Student organizations as well as community businesses decorated tents and brought their best dishes for sampling by the judges. Entries were judged on creativity, pride, food and atmosphere.

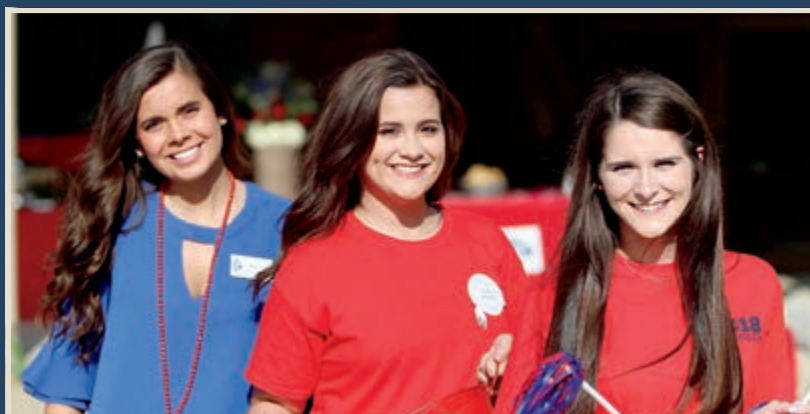

PRESIDENT'S TAILGATE

ICC rolled out the red carpet for its annual President's Tailgate, Sept. 6, at the Davis Event Center.

Alumni; students; local, county and state officials and members of the ICC faculty were on the guest list, and they socialized on the sunny autumn day.

Each year, the event is scheduled for the first home football game to kick off the season. Children had an opportunity to play games, and members of their families enjoyed the meal and visiting with friends.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

An explosion of fireworks added the punctuation mark to a celebration of past and current service members at the conclusion of Military Appreciation Night, Sept. 13. The family of ICC instructor Ashley Brown, who is deployed with the 155th, served as honorary captains for the extremely emotional event.

The event included clockwise, from top left, delivery of the game ball by the CareFlight crew, shaking hands with the captain, activities and presentation of the colors.

HOMECOMING WEEK

The week beginning Oct. 15 was jam-packed with #Bear activities prior to Homecoming, Oct. 18.

#BeattheBears Monday included popcorn and a movie on the Tupelo Campus and soccer and bowling at the Fulton Campus.

On #BreaktheBears Tuesday, there was breakfast at Belden, a pep rally at the Tupelo Campus and bingo at the Fulton Campus.

Wednesday was #BlazetheBears, and students on the Fulton Campus participated in a pep rally and capture the flag while Tupelo Campus students played bingo.

Game day was Thursday, and the #BrewtheBears schedule included coffee and donuts at both the Fulton and Tupelo campuses.

The game with the Southwest Bears was at 6:30 p.m., the first Thursday night Homecoming in ICC's history.

HOMECOMING GAMEDAY

The first Thursday Homecoming in ICC's history featured formal recognitions of the 2018 Athletic Hall of Fame inductees, Alumnus of the Year and the Homecoming court as well as a Red, Hot & Blue "cookout."

The 4 p.m. award ceremony at the Davis Event Center honored Tommy Kline of Fulton, Alumnus of the Year; and Mike Nanney Sr. of Fulton and Okolona native Ron Hill of Ponte Vedra, Fla., Athletic Hall of Fame inductees. They were also presented during pregame of the ICC-Southwest football game at Lambert Stadium/Eaton Field. All honorees participated in athletics while at IJC. Kline and Hill played football for Coach Dudley Miller, and Nanney was a basketball player for Coach Buster Davis.

Queen Keke Kimble and her court were presented at halftime of the game. They included Caroline Sutton and Anna Claire Tate, Fulton Campus freshman maids; Cantaja Finnie and Mattie Grace Pettigo, Tupelo Campus freshman maids; Laura Buskirk and Carly Childers, Fulton Campus sophomore maids; and Aundrea Savannah Robinson and Jocelyn McGaughy, Tupelo Campus sophomore maids.

Members of the court try to stay warm as they watch the ICC/Southwest game on the chilly Oct. 18 evening at Lambert Stadium/Eaton Field.

INDIANS GOT TALENT

After several weeks of auditions and preliminary rounds for Indians Got Talent, Chris Palmer and Andrew Foreman, pictured above, were selected as winners of the 2018 competition at the conclusion of the finale, Apr. 24.

Indians Got Talent, based on the popular TV show, "America's Got Talent," allowed students with more talent than just vocal to compete for the prize.

This was the first year for the replacement for Indian Idol, which was sponsored by the Fulton Campus Student Government Association from 2007-17.

INDIAN WEEK

Indian Week 2018, April 23-27, was packed with activities on both the Fulton and Tupelo campuses.

The Fulton Campus schedule included zorb racing, air raid archery, cookouts, bingo, 3-on-3 basketball tournament, Hungry Hippo and glow stick capture the flag.

Tupelo Campus students participated in bingo, voter registration drives, a cake walk, movie, lip sync contest, club-sponsored games with free food and a career boot camp. The student who found the lost Indian also won $50.

HONORS CEREMONY

Itawamba Community College's top scholars were recognized during An Evening of Celebration: Honoring Academic Excellence Across the Curriculum, April 10, 2018, in the W.O. Benjamin Fine Arts Center auditorium at the Fulton Campus.

Honorees represented the best scholars selected by all departments and divisions at the Fulton and Tupelo campuses and the Belden Center.

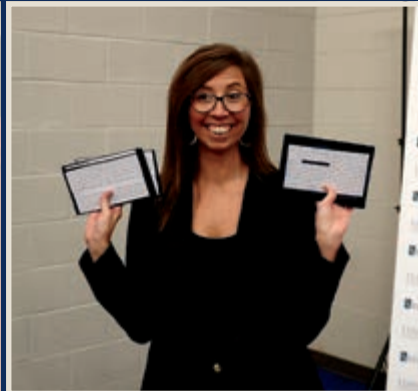

The 6:30 p.m. event also included ICC's representatives on the All-Mississippi Academic Team, including Hunter Holley, first team; and Fields Ferguson, Karla Morales and Lillian Salem, second team.

CONSTITUTION DAY

Itawamba Community College hosted a State of the District address for the annual Constitution Day event on October 29, 2018 in the Davis Event Center at the Fulton Campus. The address featured U.S. Senators Roger Wicker and Cindy Hyde-Smith and U.S. Representative Trent Kelly. The public was invited to the question-and-answer format event, which was sponsored by ICC's Political Science Club.

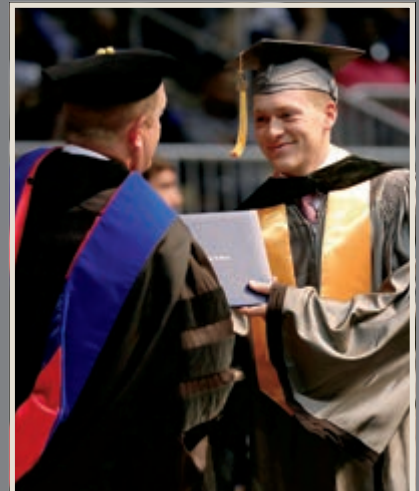

COMMENCEMENT

More than 600 graduates of Itawamba Community College crossed the stage at the Davis Event Center on the Fulton Campus, May 12, during two commencement ceremonies and were rewarded with Associate of Arts or Associate of Applied Sciences degrees or certificates of completion.

They were among approximately 800 graduates who earned degrees from ICC during the academic year.

DR. KETRA ARMSTRONG Commencement Speaker

During both ceremonies, ICC alumnus and Tupelo native Dr. Ketra Armstrong, who is a tenured professor in the school of Kinesiology in the Department of Sport Management at the University of Michigan, shared her life story as a challenge to the graduates. "This (ICC) is home," she said. "Life takes you around the world, but love takes you home. I am Mississippi made and so proud to be an alumnus of ICC." Armstrong, who graduated from ICC 35 years ago, was a member of the Lady Indians basketball team.

Although the journey of each graduate was unique, there were commonalities.

In fact, 56 graduates spent 11-20 years in pursuit of the degree, and five invested more than 25 years to reach commencement. About 30 percent of the graduates were the first to earn a college degree in their family, and 55 shared the 2018 ceremony with a cousin, sibling, parent, aunt, uncle, son, daughter, spouse and a fiancé'.

Speaker Ketra Armstrong challenged the class to "dream big. If your dreams don't scare you, they're not big enough. There is no manual for life. Keep your eyes on the stars, but stay grounded."

"Education is your ticket to change the world," Armstrong said. "The world needs you, ICC graduates. Make a difference. You are graduating from one of the best community colleges in the world. ICC is special. Savor this ICC experience. Be the spirit of ICC."

Armstrong is an inductee of the ICC Athletic Hall of Fame, and last spring, the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges Sports Hall of Fame.

Retiring faculty members Karen Davis and Joe Williams served as faculty marshals.

BSU WATER PARTY

Each year, Itawamba Community College's Baptist Student Union starts the fall semester with a splash.

Its water party is an opportunity for all students to participate in fun and games as well as have a chance to cool off at the end of a hot August day.

The event enables both members and non-members a chance to reconnect with "old" friends and meet new friends, creating memories that will last a lifetime.

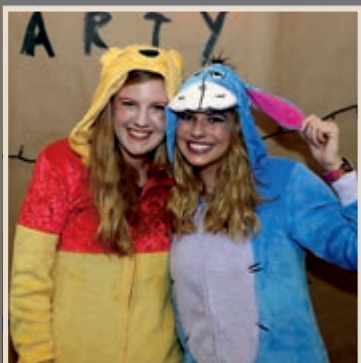

BSU COSTUME PARTY

Halloween is all about finding the right costume, and for those who attended the Baptist Student Union costume party used lots of imagination and creativity.

On Oct. 29, students dressed as cowboys, food items, celebrities and other "things" in an attempt to win the best costume at the annual event.

COLOPHON

Itawamba Community College's 64th volume of the Mirror was sent to the printer on Feb. 25.

The 10-member staff worked tirelessly on the 2018-2019 edition to create an accurate representation of the College. In August, the staff decided on the theme, "Aiming for Excellence," and began working toward its completion immediately.

This year's editor is Audra Myers; co-editor, McKenzie Cooper; and director of photography, Tyrone Brown.

The editors and staff thank C.J. Adams for overseeing this project in his new role as yearbook adviser and Donna Thomas for taking the time to proofread and write copy for the many pages of the yearbook in her free time.

In addition, we want to extend a thanks to Lee Adams, Nina Strother and Maggie Caldwell for providing the wonderful images that illustrate the Mirror.

Most importantly, the editors express special appreciation to the staff for working so hard toward the completion of the yearbook's latest volume and congratulations on a job well done!

INDEX

ITAWAMBA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

In 1941 the Itawamba Agricultural High School board of trustees voted to expand the school's curriculum to include college-level courses. In 1948 the Itawamba Junior College opened its doors with an enrollment of 114 students from Itawamba, Lee, and Monroe Counties. In addition to those, 170 veterans were enrolled in the school's carpentry, auto mechanics, masonry, and business training courses. The college's first president was Philip A. Sheffield.
